

Making Aliyah is a long process, consisting of several phases. This document will give you an overview of the entire administrative Aliyah process.

What You Will Need:

A

Documents

In order to make Aliyah you will need a number of documents. You can find more details here: 📄

The Process Step-by-Step:

1

Initial Contact

Call the Jewish Agency in order to start the process. You can find the phone number for your country/city here: 📄 First you will receive a link to a form to fill out. If you need help with this, watch our tutorial: 📺

2

Preliminary Phase

You will receive an email from your account manager at the Jewish Agency setting the approximate time and date for a first conversation. He will then explain the process and the documents required in your case. Be ready for the call.

3

Aliyah Portal

After the call, you will receive a list of the required documents and your access details to the Aliyah Portal. All the following actions must be done on the Aliyah Portal:

- Access the Portal and create your own password
- Fill out the eligibility questionnaire
- Pay the fee and upload the receipt
- Fill out the remaining questionnaires
- Upload the required documents
- Send an email to your account manager informing him that you have completed the procedure.

4 Approval of Eligibility

After submitting all the required documents, the Jewish Agency will check your file. They might request additional documents or information.

5 Interview

After receiving an approval email, you must follow the instructions in order to schedule your interview. Each country has a different way of scheduling the interview. In addition, you will be asked to send all the original documents to the Jewish Agency office.

6 Additional Documents

After the interview, you will have to submit additional documents, such as:

- New criminal record with apostille
- Missing apostilles of other documents
- Medical certificate
- Renewed portal forms (if applicable)

If the Jewish Agency does not get in touch with you within 30 days of the interview, contact them.

7 Final Approval

The Aliyah granting process ends with the issuance of the visa. The visa is valid for 6 months. Thus, your Aliyah has to happen within that time.

Important Notes:

Checklist

The Aliyah process is long and there are many things to consider. Here is a timeline with a checklist that might help you keep track:

Need help? Contact us:
www.shivat-zion.com/trouble-shooting