

Upon your arrival in Israel, the beginning of the registration process will take place at the airport itself. It is therefore important to have all the necessary documents with you in your hand luggage!

What You Will Need:

A

Passports & Immigration Visa

Bring all your passports including the immigration visa which you have received from the Jewish Agency (it might be inside the passport or separate).

B

Arrival Form

The arrival form which you received from the shaliach.

C

Letter from Emissary

You might have received a letter from your shaliach (emissary). If you did, take it with you.

D

Documents for Aliyah

You have to bring the already submitted original Aliyah Documents, such as:

- Birth Certificate (with simple translation into English or Hebrew)
- Marital Status Certificate
- Proof of Judaism

The Process Step by Step:

1

Escort by Governmental Representative

At the airport entrance you will meet a governmental representative who will escort you through the passport control and to the ministry's office for your initial registration.

2

Receipt of Documents

You will receive:

- Immigration certificate (Teudat Oleh)
- Temporary ID or registration form to receive it later from Misrad HaPnim (Ministry of Interior)
- ID appendix (sefach) in case you didn't receive an ID
- Cell phone chip with free calls in Israel

3

Luggage

Collect your luggage, go through customs .

4

Drive Home

If you have a prior arrangement with the Jewish Agency, you will be taken to your destination by provided transportation. If not, you will travel home independently.

Important Notes:

Revision

Check all the information on the received documents, especially on the Teudat Oleh. The benefits you will receive, vary based on the number of family members and their ages. Make sure that all the information is up to date. Also ensure that your name in Hebrew is spelled correctly.

Temporary ID

The ID is temporary and valid for 3 months only. Later you will have to go to Misrad HaPnim to get your biometric ID.

Appendix

If you didn't receive your temporary ID at the airport, the appendix (sefach) serves as a substitute. You will need to present it when contacting various institutions.
